Dear Visa Officer:

On behalf of Asbury Theological Seminary, I am delighted to formally invite Surif Surif to be a participant in the Regional Research Seminar Conference for postdoctoral scholars to be held at Asbury Theological Seminary, Wilmore, Kentucky, USA June 2024. The event at Asbury Theological Seminary is organized and sponsored financially by Langham Partnership, USA, which is a major global sponsor of academic programs for religious educational leaders. The participants have been invited to attend this conference because they have been identified as international academic scholars of outstanding potential in their own countries.

Passport Number: X2643808
Date of Issue: 6 December 2023
Date of Expiry: 6 December 2033

The conference address is:
Asbury Theological Seminary
204 N. Lexington Ave.
Wilmore, KY 40390
Telephone: +1 849-858-3581

The Four Weeks of the conference are entirely based at Asbury Theological Seminary, where each participant will be accommodated. Accommodation, food, and local expenses are fully covered by Asbury Theological Seminary and Langham Partnership USA. No Additional payment will be made for participation apart from these conference expenses. Langham Partnership will ensure each participant purchases appropriate medical insurance for the period of the conference. The participants will provide their own fully-paid return airline ticket and participants are expected to return home at the end of the conference. The invitation to participate in this program is for the participant only, and they will not travel accompanied by any member of their family. In agreeing to attend the Regional Research Seminar conference they have agreed to maintain their current employment and residence in their home country where they will return at the end of this conference.

We appreciate your prompt attention in granting the required visa to facilitate the travel of this scholar to this conference. Please do not hesitate to contact me at 1-800-2-ASBURY.

Sincerely,

Gregg Okesson, Ph.D.
